

The blatant pandering by Sinclair Media is appalling. Displaying a free 90 minute political party commercial by calling it "news" is not what America is about. What little credibility the FCC has remaining is on the line here. Not that I expect much from the likes of M. Powell...